Title: The Writings

TODAY'S VERSE:

Psalm 18:30 "As for God, his way is perfect: The Lord's word is flawless; he shields all who take refuge in him."

We have learned about the first 2 sections of the Bible, the Pentateuch and Historical Section. Next, we will be learning about "The Writings". This section is made up of 5 books which are written in different styles of poetry.

Job

- Job was a righteous man who loved and obeyed God.
- He was blessed with 10 children and thousands of animals.
- Satan accuses Job of only loving and obeying God because of these blessings. He also claimed that Job would curse God if they were taken away.
- God allowed Satan to test him, so all of his children died and his animals were stolen. Job did not curse God, though.
- Then, his health was taken away, but he still loved and obeyed the Lord.
- 3 friends come to encourage him. They end up being discouraging, though. They accuse him of suffering because of sin and being too proud to admit it. Job denies this and then begins to question God's fairness.
- God comes down in a whirlwind, scolds Job for questioning Him and accusing Him of being unfair. God also tells Job's friends that they have spoken wrongly of Him (yikes).
- Job is humble and admits that he was wrong.
- God blesses Job with children and animals, even more than he had before.
- Key points:
  - >Just because terrible things happen to people, does not mean those people are terrible.
